

CBD Domestic Regulations – This information is subject to change at anytime with or without previous notice.

State	Hemp-Sourced CBD	Marijuana-Sourced CBD For Medical Use	Marijuana-Sourced CBD For Recreational Use	CBD By Prescription	Notes
Alabama	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	Only allowed for cases of epilepsy (2014 Carly's Law).
Alaska	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Arizona	Legal	Undecided	Illegal	Legal	None.
Arkansas	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
California	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Colorado	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Connecticut	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Delaware	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	Only allowed for treatment-resistant epilepsy and muscle contractions in children (2015 Rylie's Law).
Florida	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 8% THC, only for certain conditions such as seizures (2014 law).
Georgia	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 5% THC, only for certain chronic conditions such as PTSD and chronic pain (2015 Haleigh's Hope Act).
Hawaii	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Idaho	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal	None.
Illinois	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Indiana	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2017 law); also, one of the only states to sign a law officially legalizing sale and use of hemp-derived CBD (2018).
Iowa	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 3% THC, only for certain chronic conditions such as MS (2017 law)
Kansas	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal	None.
Kentucky	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	2014 law.
Louisiana	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	Only allowed for certain chronic conditions such as MS (2016 law).
Maine	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.

CBD Domestic Regulations – This information is subject to change at anytime with or without previous notice.

Maryland	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Massachusetts	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Michigan	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Minnesota	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Mississippi	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.5% THC, only for children with severe seizures (2014 Harper Grace's Law).
Missouri	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2014 law).
Montana	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Nebraska	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal
Nevada	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
New Hampshire	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
New Jersey	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
New Mexico	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
New York	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
North Carolina	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2014 law).
North Dakota	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Ohio	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Oklahoma	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2015 law).
Oregon	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Pennsylvania	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Rhode Island	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
South Carolina	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.9% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2014 Julian's Law).
South Dakota	Unclear	Illegal	Illegal	Illegal	None.

Tennessee	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.9% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2015 law).
Texas	Legal	Illegal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.5% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2015 law).
Utah	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2014 Charlee’s Law).
Vermont	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Virginia	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 5% THC, for any “diagnosed condition or disease determined by the practitioner to benefit from such use”.
Washington	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
Washington, D.C.	Legal	Legal	Legal	Legal	None.
West Virginia	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	None.
Wisconsin	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	Only for certain conditions (2017 law).
Wyoming	Legal	Legal	Illegal	Legal	No more than 0.3% THC, only for treatment-resistant epilepsy (2015 law).
District of Columbia	Legal	Legal		Legal	None.